Diversey *

Operating Room:
Between-Case Cleaning Procedures
Perimeter Process
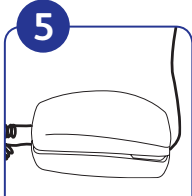

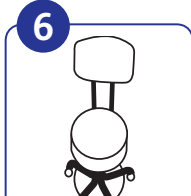

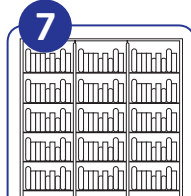

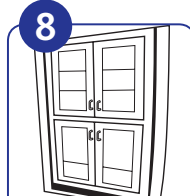

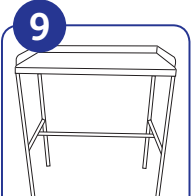

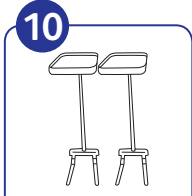

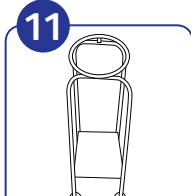

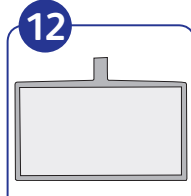

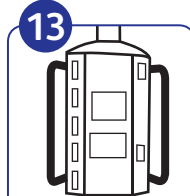

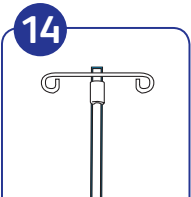

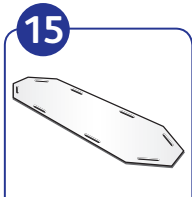

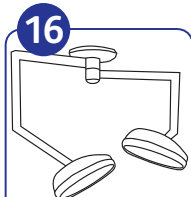

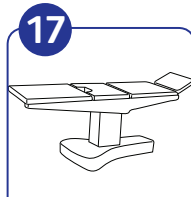

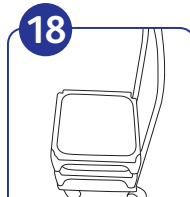

Getting Started

1 Gather supplies.

2 Conduct hand hygiene, put on PPE.

3 Inspect Room - identify and report any room issues.
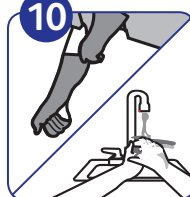

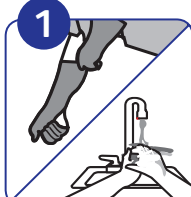

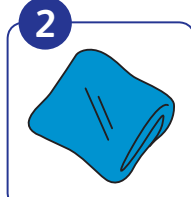

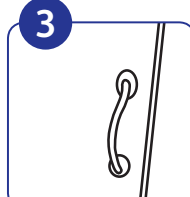

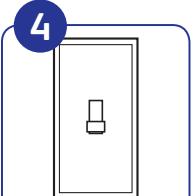

4 Gather and remove all used and soiled linens.

5 Gather and remove all trash and infectious waste.

6 Remove suction containers or cleaning.

7 Check sharps containers; if 2/3 full; have container changed.

8 Spot clean any visible soil from low touch surfaces.

9 Place wet floor sign at room entrance.

10 Remove PPE, conduct hand hygiene
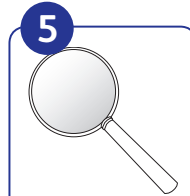

NOTE: All sharps and glass should be handled with extreme caution for your protection

Clean and Disinfect Operating Room Surfaces and Equipment

NOTE: Consistent with AORN Guidelines, Diversey Care recommends following these guiding principles while cleaning: Clean from high to low; Clean less soiled areas first then move to more soiled areas (clean to dirty); Clean the perimeter first then move to the center.

1 Conduct hand hygiene, put on PPE.

2 Gather cleaning cloth moistened with disinfectant; As the cloth becomes soiled, exchange it for a new cloth
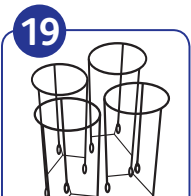

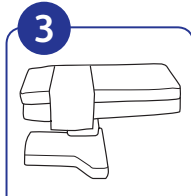

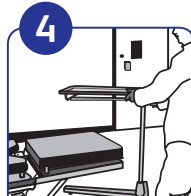

3 Doors and door handles

4 Light switches

5 Telephones, key pads and receivers

6 Chairs

7 Omnicell

8 Supply cabinets

9 Flat surface tables

10 Mayo stands

11 Ring stands

12 Overhead monitor

13 Boom and arms

14 IV poles

15 Slider board

16 Overhead surgical lights and arms

17 Operating room table; break down and clean all components; clean both sides of the mattress and the table base

18 Step stools

19 Waste and linen receptacles

20 Kick buckets

21 Mop floors

22 Remove PPE, conduct hand hygiene

Finishing the Room

1 Reline waste and linen receptacles.

2 Replace suction canisters.

3 Make OR table.

4 Rearrange equipment as needed.

5 Inspect work.

6 Conduct hand hygiene, put on PPE.

7 Remove wet floor signs and tools; clean; and replace on work station.

8 Transport waste and linen to collection area.

9 Remove PPE, conduct hand hygiene.

www.diversey.com

If you have any questions, please contact your supervisor.